

Values, Ethics and Military Leadership

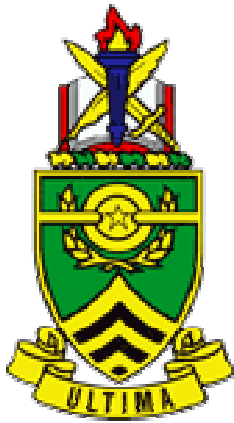

P.S. There's More to Doing the Right Thing than Doing the Right Thing!

Purpose

- To study the Army Ethical Decision Making Process.
- To relate ethical categories to leadership challenges.
- To introduce the Land Navigation Model of Ethical Process.
- To provide you some tools to build the ethical climate of your unit.

End State

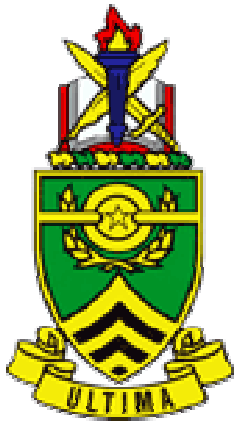

Each Student will be able to

- Define Ethics.
- List the 4 steps in the Army Ethical Decision Making Process.
- Describe 4 Ethical Systems
- Relate the Land Navigation Model of Ethical Decision Making to the four ethical systems.
- Use the Land Navigation Model and the Decision Making Process to define and resolve an ethical problem.
- Describe how effective ethical decisions increase their unit effectiveness.

Outline

- Introduction and Definitions
- The Army Ethical Decision Making Process
- The 4 Ethical Processes
 - Character Ethics (Grip It and Rip It!)
 - Deontology
 - Teleology
 - Situational/Contextual
- The Land Navigation Model of Ethical Process
- Practical Exercise
- Summary
- Questions

References

Article 90, UCMJ, 1984

FM 22-100, 30 Aug 1999, Army
Leadership, CH 2 &4, App. D

DOD 5500.7-R, 30 Aug 93 Joint Ethics Regulation

Consider This...

“ Proud of all we have done ... ”

The Army Song

I am proud of the Corps of Noncommissioned Officers and will at all times conduct myself so as to bring credit upon the Corps, the Military Service and my country regardless of the situation in which I find myself.

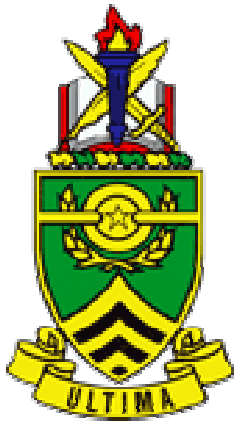

The NCO Creed

Definitions

Ethics is the process used to analyze a problem and make a decision.

Morality is a value judgment upon the decision and the process used to reach it.

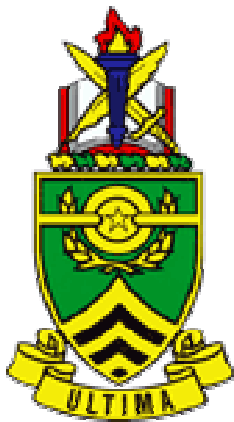

Bottom Line

The Army is a value – driven organization.

As leaders, you are expected to set a course of action that is consistent with Army values, and hold yourself and your subordinates accountable to these standards.

DO THE RIGHT

NCO Dilemma

Battalion Guidance

Daily Operations

Training

ARTEPS/NTC/ JRTC

Deployment

Family Support

EO

Personal Obligations

Company Business

Soldier Emergencies

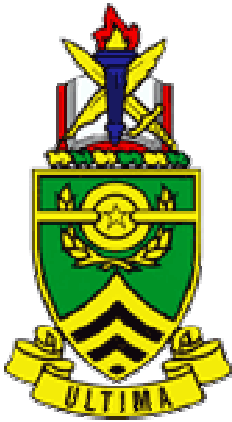

UCMJ

Counseling

Sexual Harassment

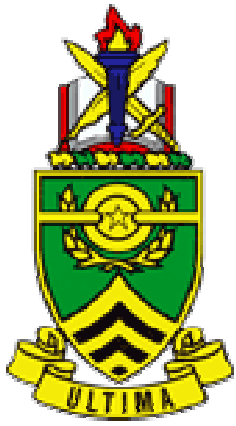

What is the Right Thing?

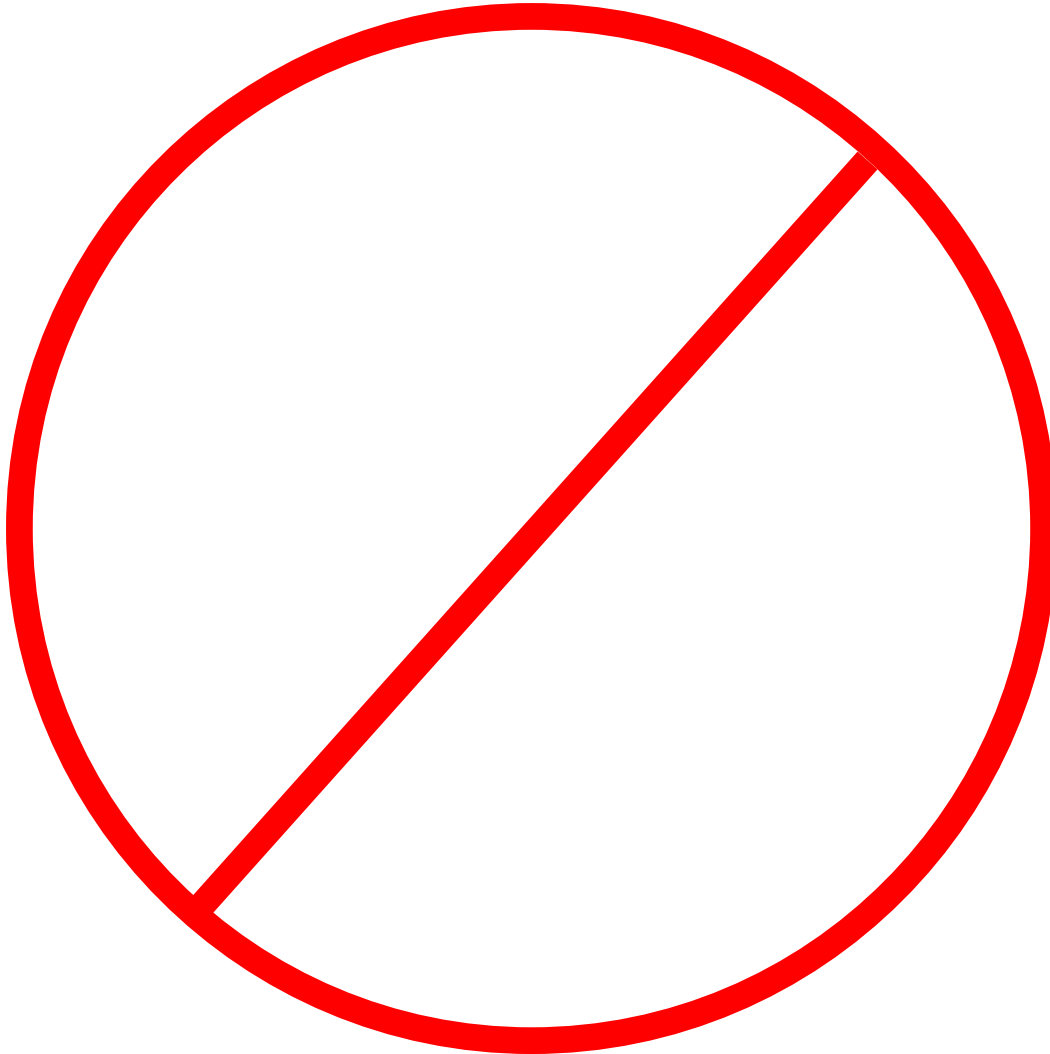

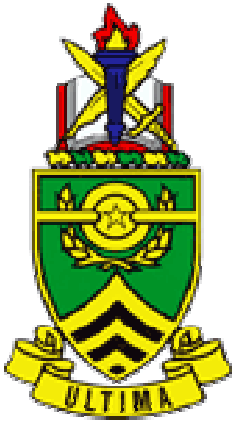

Army Ethical Decision Process (AEDP) FM22-100

- Define the Problem
- Know the Rules
- Develop and evaluate courses of action
- Choose the best course of action
- Act

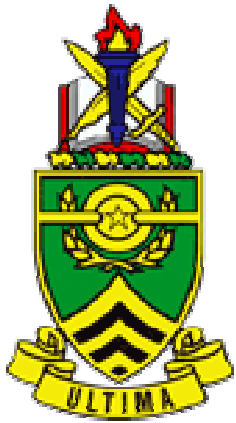

THE AEDP

WARNING!

The AEDP is a Decision Matrix.
It is NOT an ethical system!

Values

Families

Personal Experience

Education

How we think

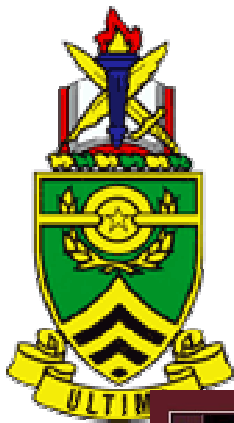

Culture

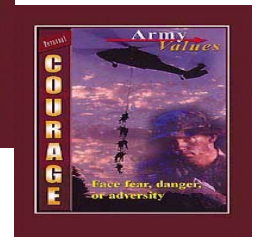

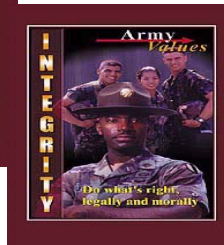

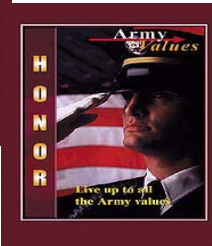

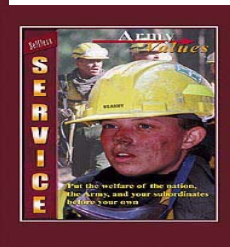

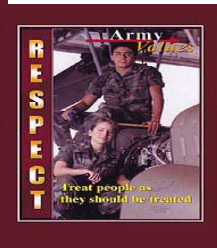

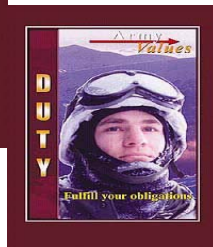

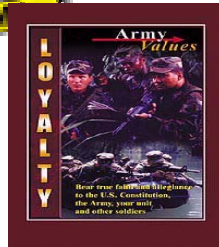

Jobs

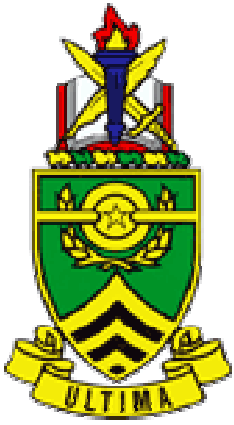

Religion

Gender

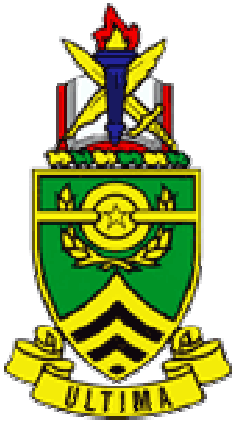

ARMY VALUES

Ethics is putting your values into action.

Four Ethical Systems

- Character
- Deontology
- Teleology
- Situational/Contextual

Character

Deontology

Situation

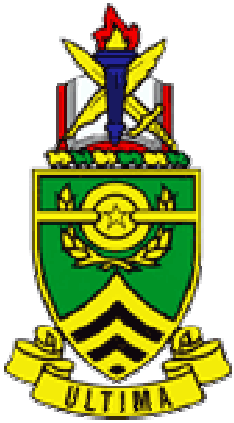

Teleology

Character

Deontology

Situation

Teleology

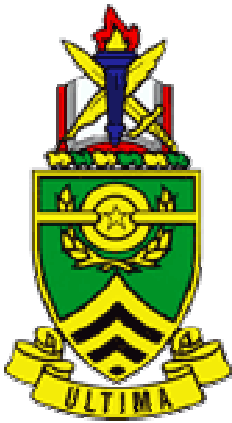

Grip it and Rip It!

(Character Ethics)

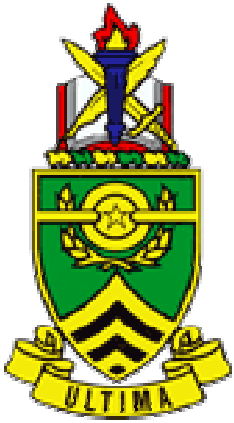

(The immortal words of Ray McAvoy describing the metaphysics of the Golf Swing)

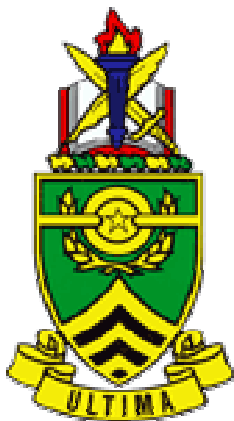

Character Ethics

- Deeply ingrained boundaries/ patterns of behavior that you just don't cross.
- They are almost reflex, and they are not quickly changed.
- A Change or Challenge may have adverse affects on the individual.

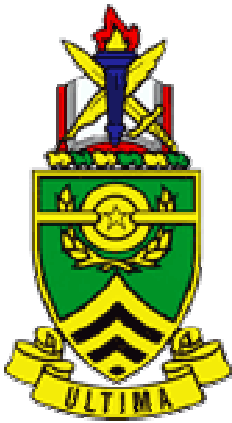

“Character is the bedrock on which the whole edifice of leadership rests.”

General Matthew B. Ridgway

Casualties of War

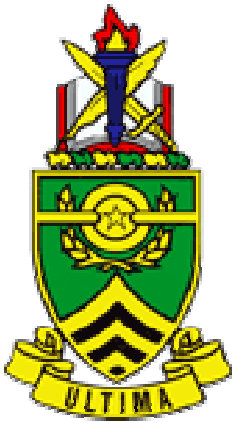

Grip It and Rip It in Real Time

“Everyone is wandering around here saying what the _____. I might not be here tomorrow, so what I do doesn’t matter. But I began to think, that I really might not be here tomorrow, so what I do today ultimately matters.”

- PVT Marshall Storeby
1 Cavalry Division
Vietnam

Vitina, Kosovo – JAN 2000

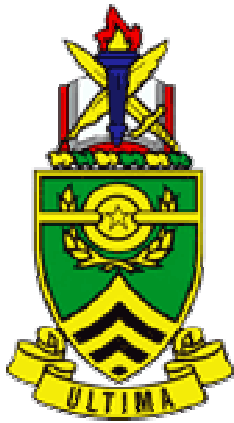

Character

Deontology

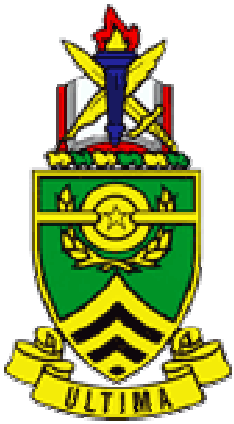

Situation

Teleology

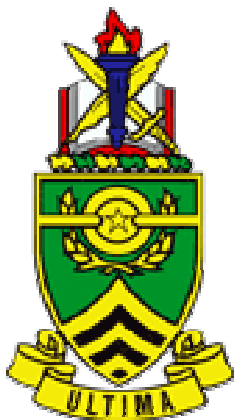

Deontology

- Dei = Greek, It is necessary
- Decisions and analysis based upon Unchanging Rules or Standards
- Rules/Standards drive all actions
- Appeal to an “Authority”

Military Deontology

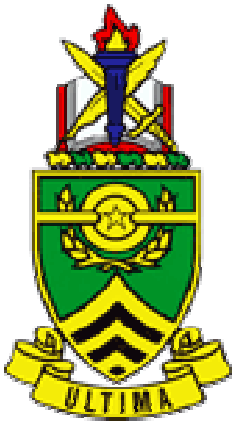

Just War

Jus Ad Bellum

- Just Cause
- Legitimate Authority
- Just Intention
- Proportionality of Ends
- Last Resort
- Reasonable Hope for Success
- The Aim of Peace

Jus in Bello

- Proportionality –the damage caused cannot be greater than the good intended.
- Discrimination – the intention to target only combatants and the effort to protect the lives of non-combatants.

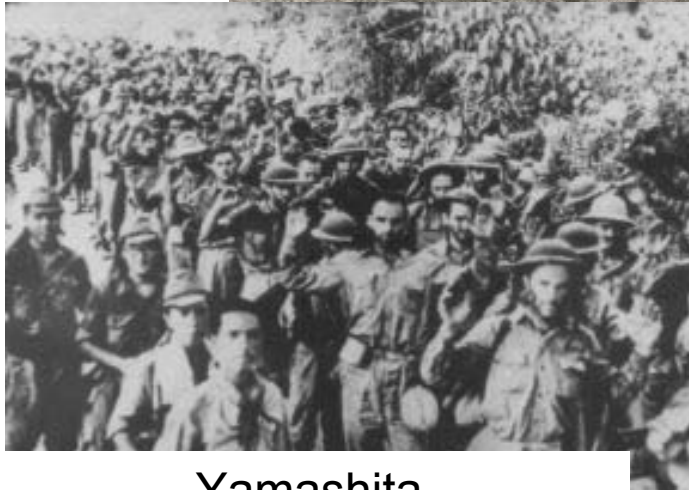

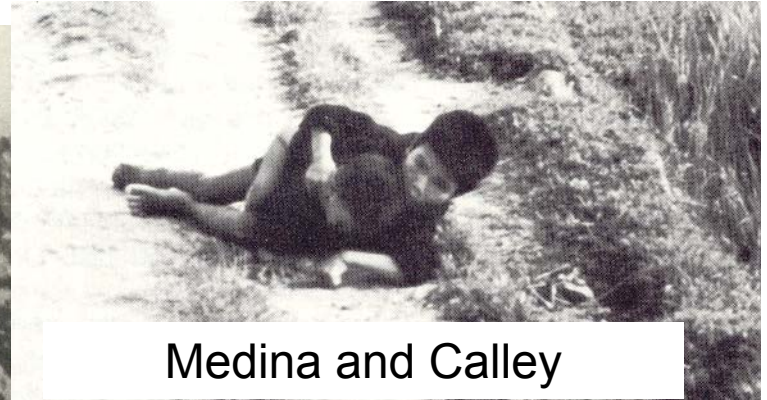

Historical Deontology

Command Responsibility

Nuremberg

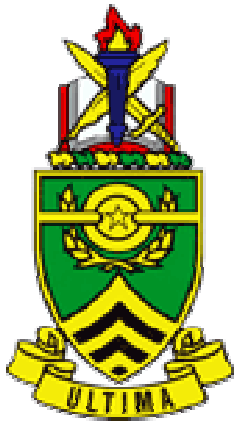

Medina and Calley

Yamashita

Srbrenica and Kibeho

Mogadishu MP: Rules vs. Character

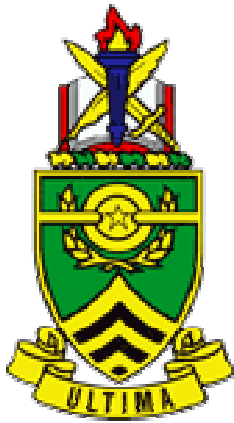

Character

Deontology

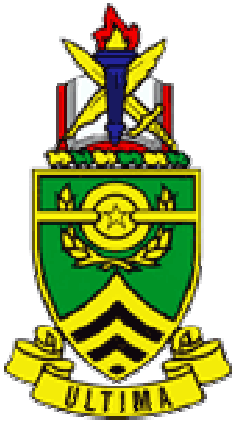

Situation

Teleology

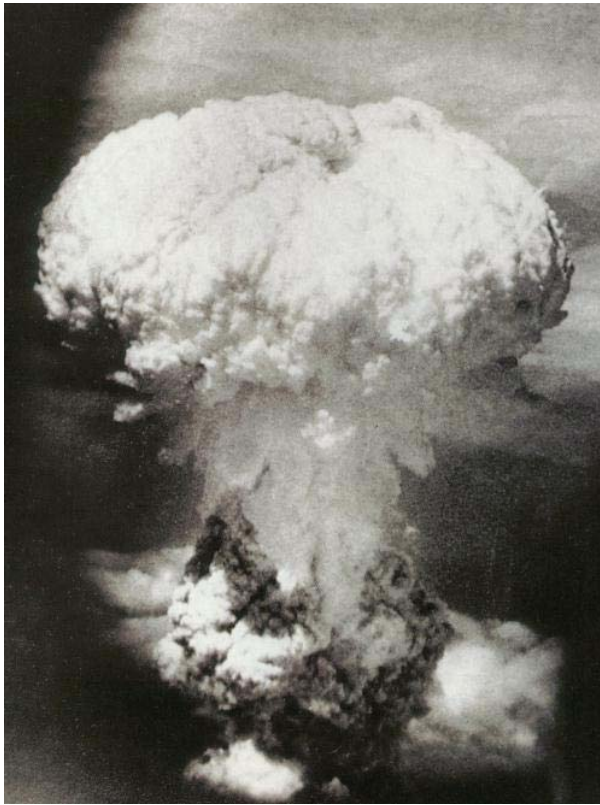

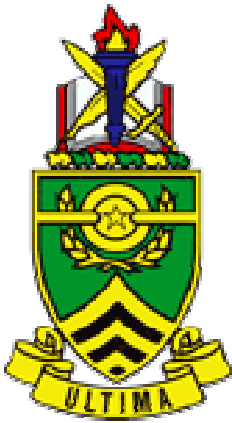

Teleology

- Telos = End or Final Result
- The end result commands the current course of action.
- The ends justify the means
- If you don't know where you're going, you're sure to get there.

Telos = Mission First

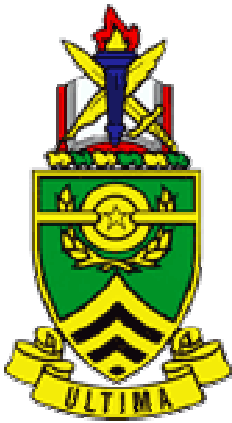

International Teleology

DIFFERENT VIEWS How others see the military

This cartoon first appeared in The Record of Hackensack, N.J.

MARGULIES
© 2002 THE RECORD NEW JERSEY
WWW.NORTHERNJERSEY.COM/IMARGULIES

Different but Teleology

October 2001

Taliban supreme leader, Mullah Mohammed Omar:

"The situation where we are now, there are two things: either death or victory. To those who are fighting and bombarding us, they should understand the Afghan man is a fighter willing to die for jihad."

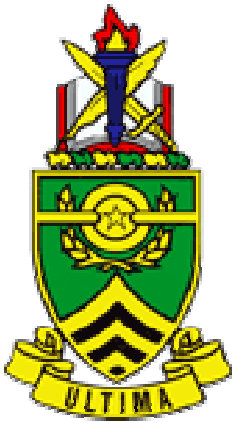

June 1944

General George S. Patton:

"I want you to remember that no bastard ever won a war by dying for his country. He won it by making the other poor dumb bastard die for his country..."

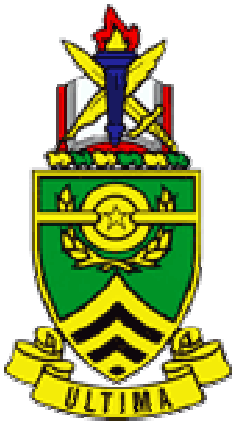

Motorpool Teleology

“I want those stolen doors put on my vehicle by COB, or I’ll start shooting!”

Force vs. Civilian Protection

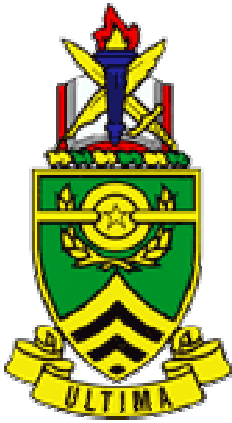

Character

Deontology

Situation

Teleology

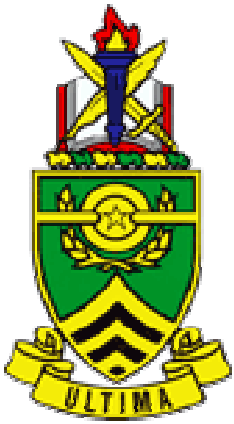

Situational Ethics

- Also called situational ethics.
- The situation matters.
- What is the correct thing to do

Right NOW?

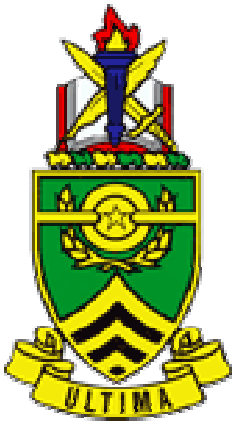

- Command Initiative.

Situational Ethics

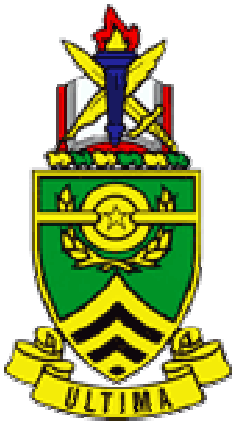

Improvise, Adapt, and Overcome

Failure of Situational Awareness

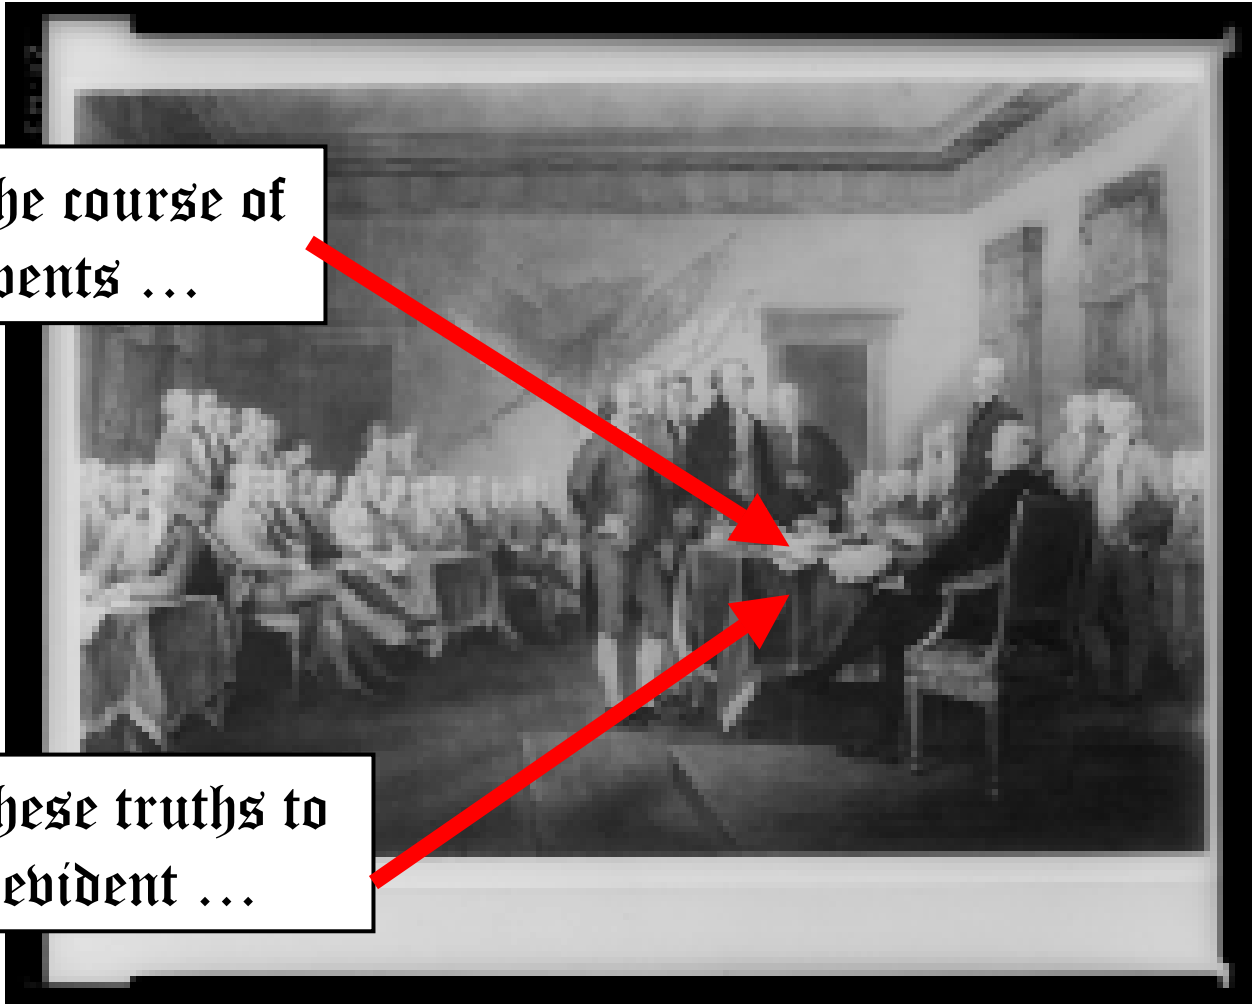

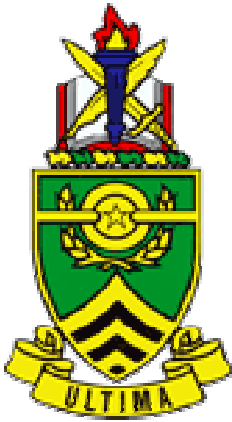

Declaration of Independence

Whence in the course of human events ...

We hold these truths to be self-evident ...

Situational Ethics in Real Time

“We have a choice – to change the way we live, which is unacceptable, or to change the way that they live. We choose to do the latter.”

Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld, 18 Sept 2001

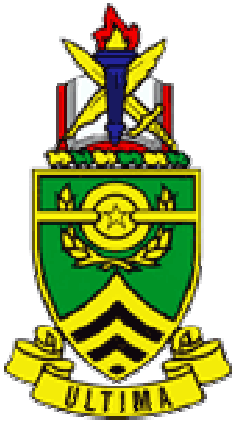

Contextual Ethics in Real Time

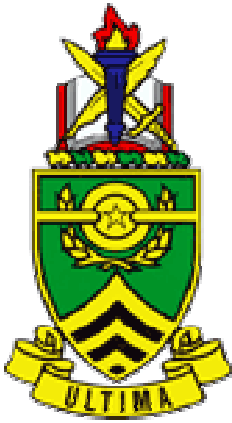

“The Enemy Has a Vote.”

P.S. (So do civilians)

Ethical Navigation

Conflict in Ethical Systems

What is:

Deontology

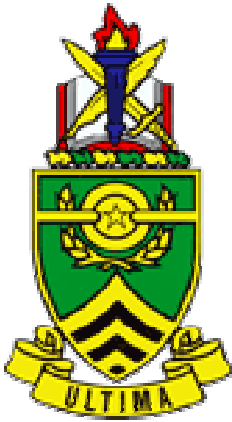

Required?

Appropriate? Teleology

Situation

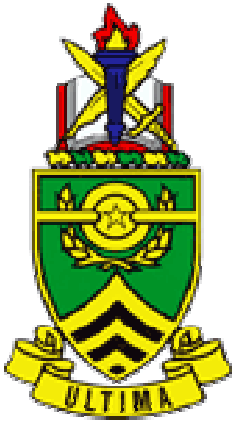

Correct?

Acceptable? Character

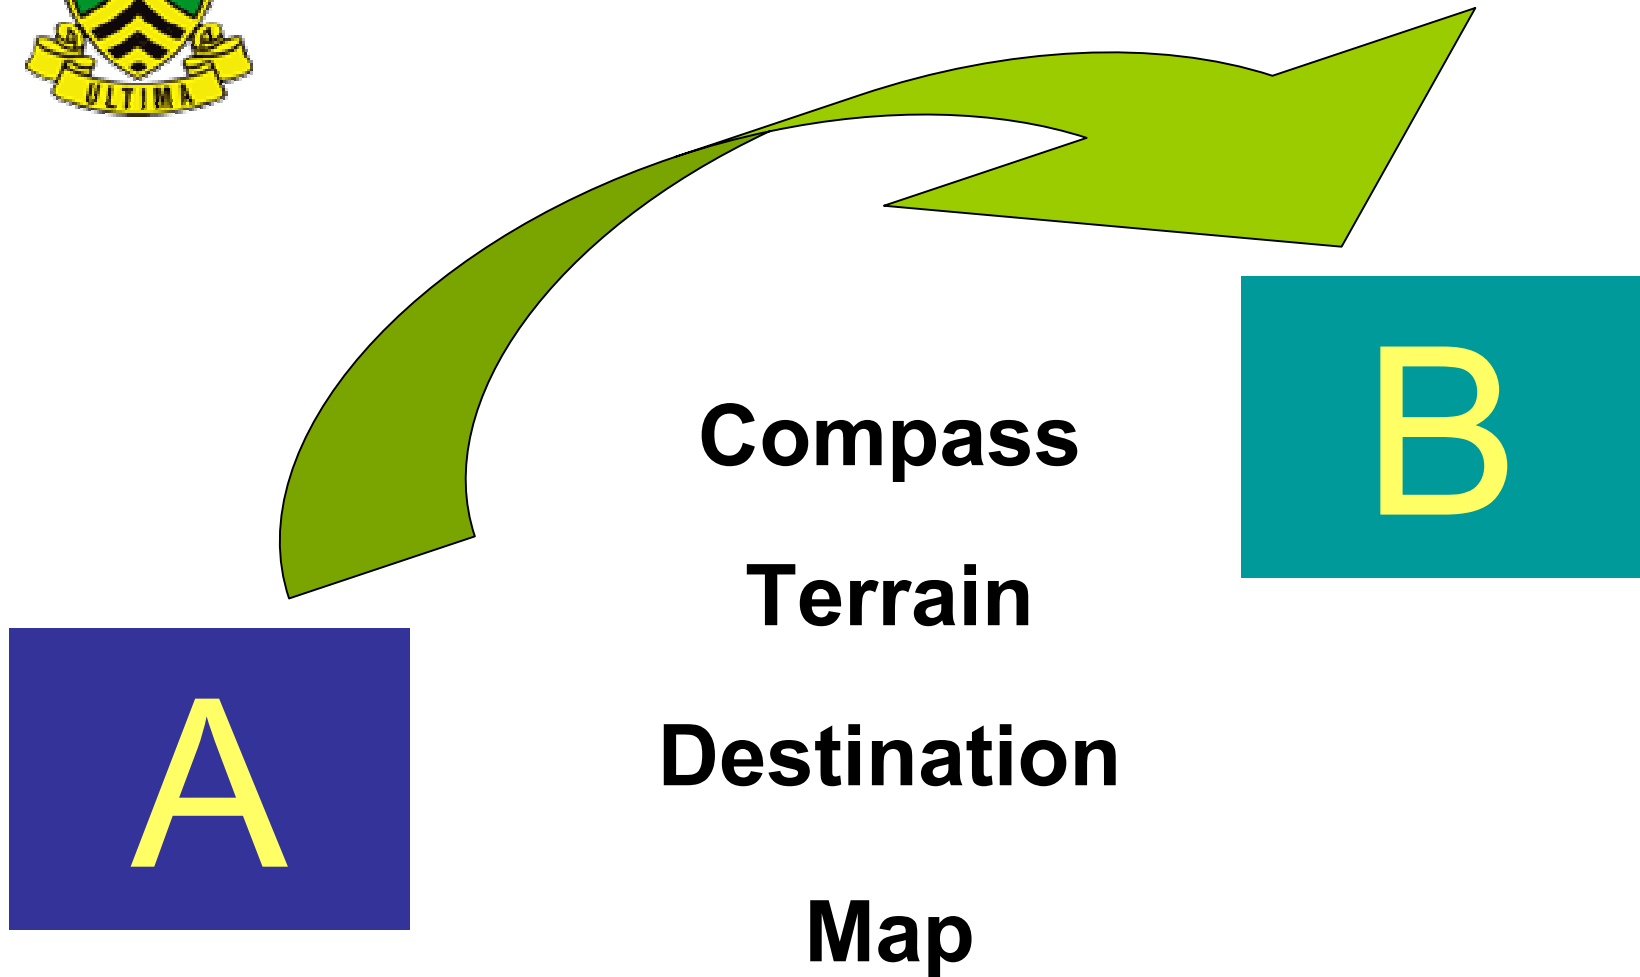

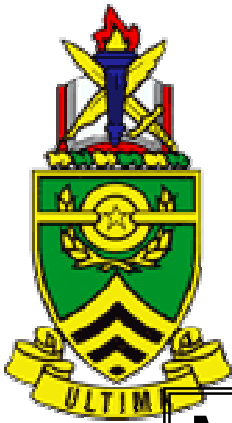

Army Ethical Decision Process (AEDP)

- Define the Problem
- Know the Rules
- Develop and evaluate courses of action
- Choose the best course of action
- Act

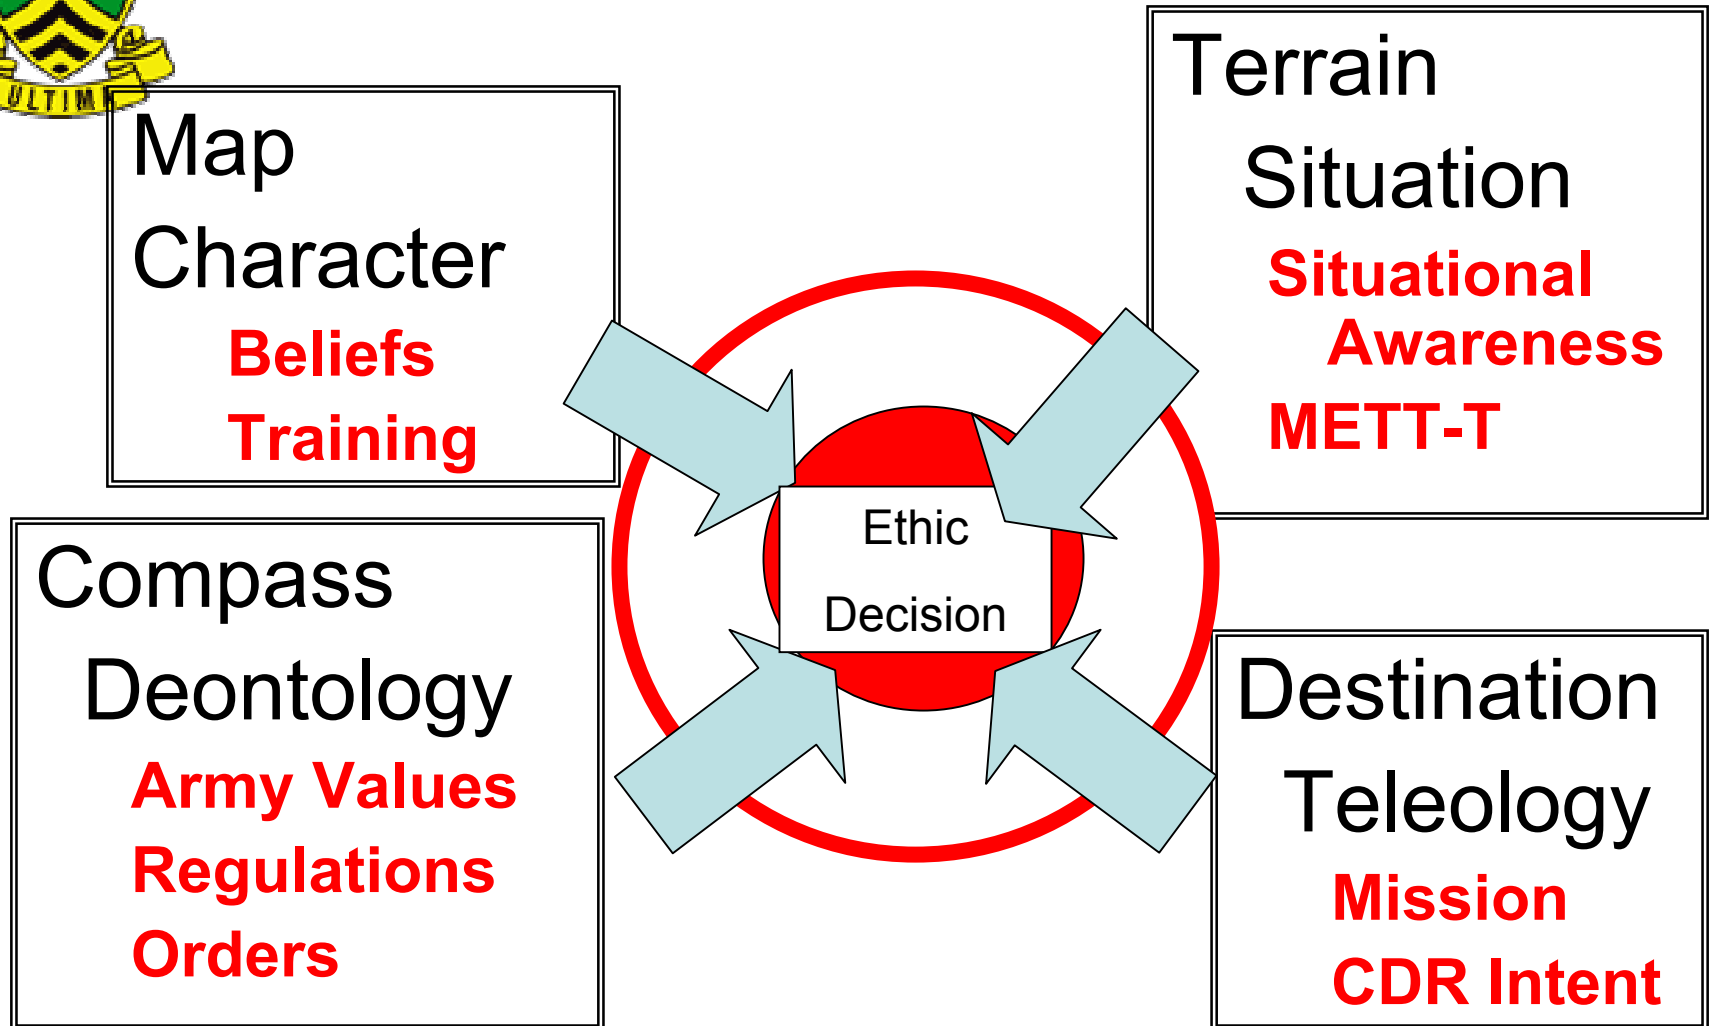

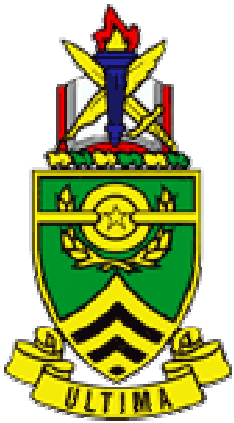

Land Navigation Model of Ethical Process

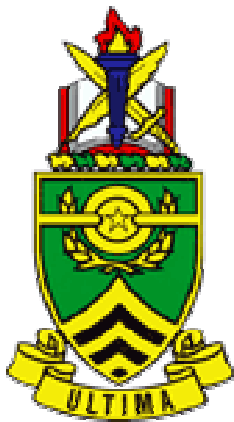

Land Navigation Ethics

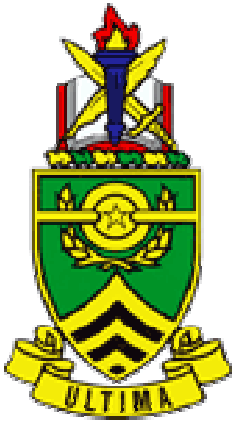

Land Navigation Ethics in Real Time

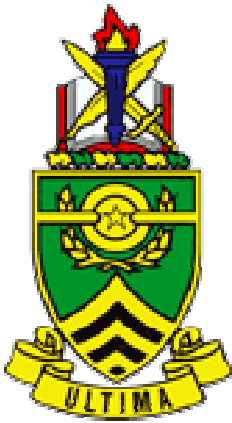

Kosovo 2000

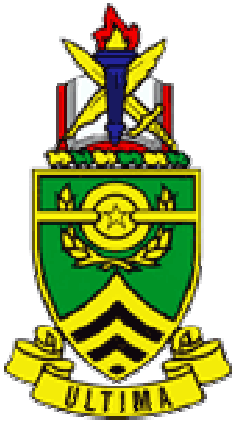

Command Climate and Guidance

Go Hard or Go Home!

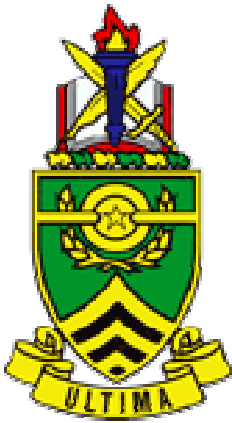

Command Climate and Guidance

This is a volunteer force, and soldiers volunteer to meet our standards. If they should fail to meet our standards, we should thank them for trying, and send them home.

Army Ethical Decision Process (AEDP)

- Define the Problem
- Know the Rules
- Develop and evaluate courses of action
- Choose the best course of action
- Act

What are the Issues?

Company Commander

Don't let soldier "get over"
– Take Care of him and his family

Battalion Commander

Retrain and allow soldier to complete deployment – money for family

1SG

Unwilling Soldier – motivate for duty

Soldier

Send Me Home – I'm Losing It!

CSM

Make Him soldier – he's done it in the past

Div Psychiatrist

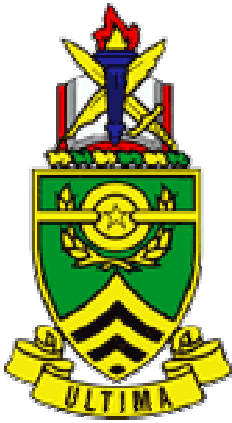

Personality Disorder
– Can't Treat, Hold him accountable, or Discharge.

Spouse

Re-enlist

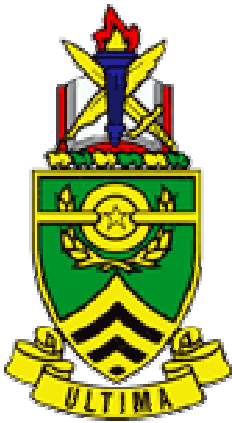

Chaplain

Send him home for Treatment and/or Discharge

What are the Ethical Systems?

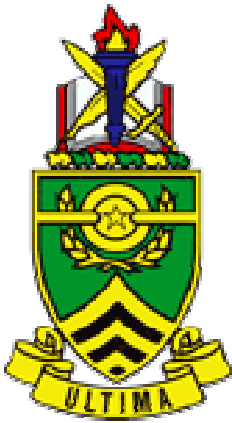

- Deontology (Compass)
- Teleology (Destination)
- Situation (Terrain)
- Character (Person on the Course)

Deontology/Compass

1. Command Concern for Soldier, Unit, and Family
2. Medical Procedure
3. Regulations – Counseling, UCMJ.
4. Army Standards
5. Human Life

Teleology/Destination

1. Commander's Decision – Family Driven, Security & Future for soldier. Unit Accountability.
2. NCO's Advice – Soldier/Unit Driven – enforce the standard.
3. Chaplain's Advice – Unit driven, Cut Loses
4. Doc's Advice – Soldier driven, What is he capable of?
5. Soldier's desire – Get me out of here! Cry for Help?

Situation/Terrain

1. Deployed Unit
2. Unit Pride
3. Family Concerns
4. MOS – Job
5. Diagnosis-Treatment

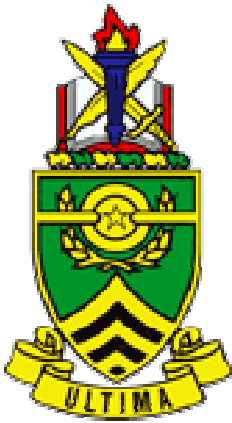

Character Ethics

1. Soldier's Condition
2. Personal Criteria – What does it mean to soldier?
3. What does it mean to lead?
4. Unit Loyalty?

Modified Army Ethical Decision Process (AEDP)

- Define the Problem
- Ask the following Questions:
 - What are the rules/principles?
 - What is the destination (endstate/consequences)?
 - What is the situation/terrain – what's going on/who is affected – what are the effects?
 - What does my conscience tell me?
- Develop and evaluate courses of action
- Align courses of action
- Act

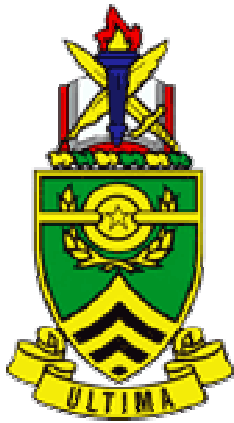

Land Navigation Ethics

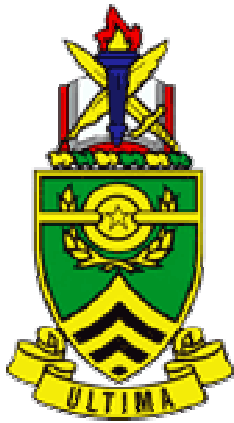

Land Nav Ethics in Real Time

Summary

As a leader you are responsible for the actions of your unit, and this includes the ethical standards and processes used to soldier.

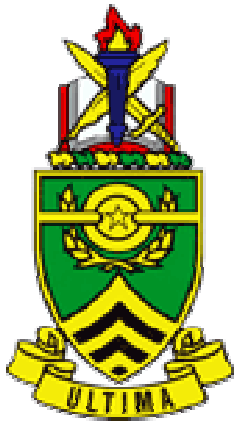

Remember ...

Ethics is about your:

- 1. Direction
- 2. Destination
- 3. Situation
- 4. Character

Remember ...

It's all about Ethics!

Questions?